Comic book inspired by nature

Use the blank comic book panels to create a story inspired by nature.

Print as many panel pages as you need for your story.

If you're in need of inspiration, you can refer to the ideas here:

IDEAS:

- A story about a living being in nature (for example, a tree, a bird, an insect).
- A story about nature conservation (for example, a superhero who protects nature).
- A bird visits you and takes you on a trip.
- One day, while on a walk, you take a wrong turn and find yourself in a place you have never been to before.
- A story from the point of view of an ant who tries to take food crumbs from a picnic.
- You wake up in a large field of flowers. What happens next?
- While walking outside, you feel a drop fall on you from the sky. But it's not rain...
